

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

FINANCIAL PLANNING MONTH

- WHEREAS: Financial planning is the process of wisely managing one's finances while simultaneously navigating the economic barriers that can arise at any stage of life; and
- WHEREAS: This process provides individuals and families with the resources necessary to set manageable fiscal goals and develop realistic and comprehensive plans to meet those goals by addressing financial weaknesses and building on financial strengths; and
- WHEREAS: Financial planning can provide advantages to all citizens, regardless of income level; and
- WHEREAS: Whether buying a home, starting a business, saving for a child's college education, or preparing for retirement, everyone can benefit from sound financial planning and an understanding of how to locate the proper resources for receiving objective financial advice from a Certified Financial Planner professional; and
- WHEREAS: Organizations such as the Financial Planning Association (FPA), with its more than 27,500 members, support the financial planning process as a proper method to help individuals reach their dreams and achieve their financial goals; and
- WHEREAS: During the sixth celebration of Financial Planning Week, FPA's Georgia chapter and FPA chapters across the country will host a series of events to increase public knowledge of the value of financial planning; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 2018 as FINANCIAL PLANNING MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 7th day of June in the year of our Lord two thousand eighteen.
